Re: Nella Longari S.r.l. v. Salander-O'Reilly Galleries, LLC, et al.
United States District Court, Southern District of New York
07-CV-8484 (VM)
Our File: 11019-2

Dear Honorable Judge:

We are attorneys for Nella Longari S.r.l., the plaintiff in the above-referenced action.

On October 30, 2007, Your Honor signed an Order to Appear with which it was ordered that defendants Salander-O'Reilly Galleries, LLC ("SOR") and Lawrence Salander ("Mr. Salander") appear at the hearing scheduled to take place on November 8, 2007. The hearing was set upon plaintiff's motion seeking (1) an injunction enjoining defendants from selling or transferring artworks belonging to plaintiff, and (2) an accounting on the artworks allegedly sold by defendants on the account of the plaintiff and a description of the location of the unsold artworks.

On November 1, 2007, three of the creditors of SOR, other than Nella Longari, filed a bankruptcy petition against SOR with the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

On November 2, 2007, Mr. Salander and his wife, Julie D. Salander, filed a bankruptcy petition, under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, with the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York.

On November 7, 2007, the undersigned attended a status conference before the Honorable Judge Lowe III, of the New York Supreme Court, on certain consolidated cases filed by certain plaintiffs, other than Nella Longari, against SOR and Mr. Salander. At the conference, Judge Lowe was informed of the two bankruptcy proceedings, as described above. Judge Lowe put the case before him on the suspense calendar and stated that the injunction he granted to the plaintiffs and against the defendants, enjoining the defendants from selling or transferring the artworks for which those plaintiffs are suing, are still in place.

In light of the foregoing, Nella Longari respectfully requests that (1) the order signed by Your Honor on October 30, 2007, be in place and (2) the instant case be placed on the suspense calendar of this Honorable Court, while the bankruptcy cases are pending.

We thank the Court for its attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
Wuersch & Gering LLP
